

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Executive summery
1. Introduction	1-2
2. System of Mother Vessels.	2-3
3. Objective of the study	4
4. Methodology	4-5
5. Limitation of this study	5
6. Results and discussion of present situation	6-10
6.1. Age and Experience of Boat Owners and skippers.
6.2. Area of fishing
6.3. Satisfaction of about Harbour facilities
6.4. Present Fishing gear usage
6.5. Composition of Fish Catch
6.6. Quality of Fish Catch
6.7. Present Fish Price
7. Perceptions of boat owners and Skippers on Mother vessels system	11-16
7.1. Agreements with Mother Vessels
7.2. Impact of Mother Vessels on fish production and its quality
7.3. View of Obtaining Facilities from Mother Vessels
7.4. Fish Selling to Mother Vessels
7.5. Impact of Mother Vessels on Fish Export
7.6. Mother Vessels Acquiring Area
7.7. Fishing Days and Unloading days
7.8. Crew Management of Multi-day Boats Under the Mother Vessel System
8. Fishers requirements from Mother Vessels	17
9. Suggestions of Skippers and Boat Owners for a sustainable Mother Vessel system	17-18
10. Critical issues to be considered, prior to implement of Mother Vessels.	18-19
11. Conclusion and recommendations	20

LIST OF TABLES

Table 01: Experience of Boat owners and Skippers.

Table 02: Satisfaction of about Harbour Facilities.

Table 03: Current Usage of Gill net pieces and Number of Hooks per boat

Table 04: Boat owners view on the share of yellow fin & big eye tuna catch of total fish production.

Table 05: Skippers view on the Satisfaction on Present Producer Price of Fish

Table 06: Boat owners idea about purchasing price at the Mother Vessel

Table 07: Barriers to fish export

Table 07: Skippers Maximum Fishing Days at Deep Sea.

Table 08. Mother Vessel's capacity and fish supply situation of multi-day boats

LIST OF CHARTS

Chart 01: Boat Owners and Skippers Satisfaction on Harbour facilities

Chart 02: Skippers Ideas regarding Composition of total fish production

Chart 03: Boat Owners Satisfaction Level of Quality of Export fish

Chart 04: Skippers view on maintaining the Quality of Export fish

Chart 05: Boat owners view about Fish Quality after introduction of Mother Vessels.

Chart 06: Skippers view about Fish Quality and Production after Introduction of Mother Vessels.

Chart 07: Boat owners Ideas to buy facilities from mother vessels

Chart 08: Skippers Ideas to buy facilities from mother vessels.

Chart 09: Boat owners' idea to sell their fish catch to mother vessels.

Chart 10: Situation of fish export after mother vessel system.